

LAST RESORT

The Violence of action will be HIGH. I will bring unconventional and asymmetrical warfare. This will be a war of attrition Think before you attempt to intervene. You will not survive. Your family will receive that medal of valor posthumously. It will gather dust on the fireplace mantel for years. Then one day, it will go in a shoe box with other memories.

I assure you that the casualty rate will be high. Because of that, no one will remember your name.

Ask yourselves what would cause somebody to take these drastic measures. I am the walking exigent circumstance you created.

I'm not an aspiring rapper, I'm not a gang member, I'm not a dope dealer, I don't have multiple babies momma's. I am an American by choice, I am a son, I am a brother, I am a military service member, I am a man who has lost complete faith in the system, when the system betrayed, slandered, and libeled me.

Some say it is my fault that I was terminated. You said that I should have kept my mouth shut about another officer's misconduct. Maybe you were right. But I'm not built like others.

I have nothing to lose. My personal casualty means nothing.

No one grows up and wants to be a cop killer.

I am here to change and make policy I am here to correct and calibrate your morale compasses to true north.

When the truth comes out, the killing stops.

This is my last resort. You have suppressed the truth and it has now lead to deadly consequences.

I have exhausted all available means at obtaining my name back.

I will not be alive to see my name cleared. That's what this is about, my name. A man is nothing without his name.

A name is more than just a noun, verb, or adjective. It's your life, your legacy, your journey, sacrifices, and everything you've worked hard for every day of your life.

Don't let anybody tarnish it when you know you've live up to your own set of ethics and personal ethos.

Unfortunately, this is a necessary evil that I do not enjoy but must partake and complete for substantial change to occur and reclaim my name.

The question is, what would you do to clear your name?
