

there is such a thing as a Cabbage Patch mothball which is utterly unique and a person though no face

there is such a thing as a dustmote with a signature of William Gerhard Kerouac which will get you 50,000,000,000 if you sell it on E-bay and the seller will be the new Christ as well as Japanese there is such a thing as a flame-retardant fire-plug made of young grasses sheathed in polyamorals which when once in the Fire-God's orifice becomes a Go-Go dancer hot with shame there is such a thing as designer cow cocoon there is such a thing as eyeball-anus organism there is such a thing as a blueberry smokestack out of which clouds of blueberryliciousness float there is such a thing as a designer shame suit to wear when you are groveling in dirty dirt shame with crimson suction-cups to hold in place there is such a thing as a McWalrus sandwich full of the life-giving Vitamins A, D and E there is such a thing as sexual-deficit syndrome curable with "Stinger" condoms or with "Choco" condoms there is such a thing as inserting purchased mechanism there is such a thing as last year's orgasm and you can't buy it but there are substitutes there is such a thing as being trained without realizing it and it's easier and proud to be the work of experts there is such a thing as ideological laxative our-ideology-is-to-hate-ideology ideology sticks-to-the-walls-of our brain hollow top-down shaft
