I come from never sleeping rust
 From an astrology of kicked-up dust
 From tantric turntables playin the soulphonic sounds of Motown lemme hear ya get down.
 From rock and roll uranium 238, which is made up of 92 protons of sweat and 146 neutrons of turn it up to 10
 I come from a double back flip
 From one of Cary Grant's acid trips
 From a Steve McQueen car chase and the Mona Lisa's face
 I come from you sleeping quietly in bed
 From the X on Manson's forehead
 I come from the slow inhale of opium moments
 Opium moments winding through time, connecting to places deep inside us
 Places deep inside us that say...

Now

Every moment is a breath / Every breath is a word / Every word is love / Every love is now / Every now is everything is

I come from a dense lexicon of dog logic
 From the gestalt of the Rock of Gibraltar
 From I like what you do but don't quit your day job
 I come from the smell of gasoline / From the spark of first fire / From a triple ohm choir
 From three hits of white crosses at a Kiss Concert circa the Love Gun Tour
 I come from Are you sure we should be doing this?
 From the Grim Reaper's belly button lint
 From babbling Scrabble pieces and an abracadabra thesis
 I come from the vibration of bells / Bells that sing down into the places deep inside us
 Places deep inside us that say...

Every moment is a breath / Every breath is a word / Every word is love / Every love is now / Every now is everything

I come from humming bird beer burps
 From evening's first song in a cricket church
 From what part of NO do you not understand?
 From Hey Joe where you goin' with that gun in your hand?
 I come from absinth kisses and Cadillac Ranch blisses
 From a knife in the chest to Stop You're Under Arrest
 I come from the language of honey bees / From a bee's knees
 And if you please I come from a horse / A horse in the blood
 A horse in the blood that gallops full on Wild and wanting into those places deep inside us
 Places deep inside us that say...

Every moment is a breath / Every breath is a word / Every word is love / Every love is now / Every now is everything / Every now is everything
